Halifax Regional employees organize donated food for distribution.

HALIFAX REGIONAL EMPLOYEES DEMONSTRATE GENEROSITY

ROANOKE RAPIDS, N. C. – (November 26, 2008) – Employees of Halifax Regional have opened their hearts and wallets during the Medical Center’s annual Thanksgiving food drive.

Employees have purchased more than 400 pounds of food that will be given to needy residents of the community. The food has been delivered to three area organizations which have identified residents in need. This year’s organizations are the Angel Closet, Hannah’s Place, and the HIV/ AIDS program at Halifax Regional.

“The spirit of Halifax is evident in the generosity of our employees,” said Henry Robertson, spokesman for the Medical Center. “While our donation will not meet the need in the community, we believe it will demonstrate our concern for the well-being of our fellow residents.”

Halifax Regional’s food drive is sponsored by the Employee Events Committee. Members of the committee include: Robin Isles – Committee Chair, Helen Armstrong, Phyllis Burgess, Gwynell Butts, Wanda Catt, Judy Childress, Chastity Coleman, Kay Evans, Sherman Fleming, Ruth Gee, Susan Hayes, Josie Jones, Lori Moseley, Mary Noble, Chantal Pierce, Raymond Rayfield, Henry Robertson, Donna Thomas, Sheryl Watson and Kim Williams.
